

Biography

Edward Bowleg III

New York born Edward Bowleg's approach to styling developed from his love of editorial storytelling. From his diverse collaborations with young creatives, he has built a portfolio of individual style expression of modern femininity and masculinity.

His interest in fashion and styling began at a very young age and was advanced while living between New York and Europe while working for industry icons Beat Bolliger and Joe McKenna.

His clients include Prabal Gurung, Estee Lauder, Helmut Lang, Shiseido, Theory, Valentino, Document Journal, i-D, and Replica Man.
