

Biography

Tina Outen

Tina Outen is an internationally recognised session stylist and renowned colorist to the stars. Tina first discovered the spark for hairdressing in her early teens, inspired by a love of sub-cultures, the rawness of British youth culture and the drama of cinema, Tina's work is unique in its ability to intuitively bring rawness and drama seamlessly into the world of high-end glamour and commercial vision.

Tina's style has seen her globally recognized as she has gone on to forge a career working with the most renowned imagemakers in the fashion & commercial industries. To find an internationally respected session stylist and colorist is highly unusual at Tina's level, most contemporaries will only achieve success in either one field or the other.

Tina's natural intuition for colour and multi tonal effects continues to ensure her position as one of the go to hairstylist for brands, image-makers and celebrities whom trust her expertise and judgment.
